RECRUITMENT & PLACEMENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

UI PROTOTYPE SPECIFICATION DOCUMENT

Technology-Neutral HTML/CSS Prototype | Applicable to Java and Python Projects

Purpose: This document defines the non-functional HTML/CSS prototype screens, fields, tables, navigation, visual states, and sample content for the Recruitment & Placement Management System. Backend integration is intentionally outside the scope of this prototype.

| Document Item | Details |
|---|---|
| Document Type | UI Prototype Specification |
| Project | Recruitment & Placement Management System |
| Prototype Technology | HTML + CSS |
| Backend Integration | Out of Scope |
| Applicable To | Java and Python student projects |
| Total Prototype Pages | 12 |
| Primary Users | Admin, Recruiter, Placement Officer |

1. Prototype Scope

The prototype represents the proposed enterprise user interface only. It must be navigable using static HTML links and should contain realistic hardcoded sample data so that the screens look like an operational recruitment application.

- No Java, Python, JDBC, Flask, Django, Servlet, JSP, API, or database connection is required in the prototype.
- All data displayed in tables and cards may be hardcoded in HTML.
- Navigation between pages should work using relative HTML links.
- Forms do not need to save data; buttons may remain non-functional unless navigation is useful.
- The visual design should be consistent across all pages.
- The same prototype document is to be used by both Java and Python students.

2. Common Design Standards

| Area | Specification |
|---|---|
| Header | Logo, system name, logged-in user name/role, logout control |
| Sidebar | Dashboard, Candidates, Companies, Jobs, Applications, Interviews, Placement Process, Reports |
| Content Area | Page title, breadcrumb, filters, summary cards, tables/forms |
| Primary Buttons | Blue background; examples: Add Candidate, Save, Schedule Interview |

| Status Badges | Use clear labels such as OPEN, ACTIVE, SHORTLISTED, SELECTED, JOINED |
| Tables | Header row, alternating rows, action column, realistic sample records |
| Responsiveness | Should remain usable on laptop/desktop and reasonably readable on tablet/mobile widths |
| Validation Display | Show example inline messages or helper text where appropriate |
